PRESS RELEASE

Consumers First Title Announces National Closing Solution

Coral Springs, FL October 11, 2007: Consumers First Title Company today announced that it has joined forces with a professional closing network of attorneys and title professionals to offer their clients a national closing solution.

Effective immediately, Consumers First Title can close commercial and residential real estate transactions anywhere in the United States.

Tom Streda, President of Consumers First Title stated, "This national closing solution will not only offer our clients the opportunity to expand their business outside of their local farming area but will also provide a vehicle by which we can grow and generate additional revenue for the company. We look forward to being able to deliver the same competitive rates and first class customer service to our customers on a national level."

Headquartered in Coral Springs, FL, Consumers First Title Company, Inc. is a full service Escrow, Title and Settlement Company specializing in commercial and residential real estate closings. The company is underwritten by both Old Republic National Title Company and Fidelity National Title Insurance Company.
